Reading and Writing are Controversial Issues

I am not a journalist, but I read enough newspapers and magazines to know that editors of newspapers and magazines often use somewhat misleading or provocative headlines and titles to catch

Merri Immons was invited to judge for the regional AAAS advertising competition in January. The AAAs are creative awards sponsored by the American Advertising Federation to honor excellence in advertising and cultivate the highest creative standards in the industry. The competition begins at the local level with the 9*4 AA member clubs nationwide from which local winners proceed to regional competitions, and thos
